

01E1-AA00-0020

Fiber optic pigtails are sections of optical fiber terminated on one side with a connector.

They are manufactured as standard on an inner cable with a diameter of 0.9 mm.

They are used for termination of optical fibers of line cables in fiber optic switches, subscriber outlets and boxes with commutation fields.

Features

- .
- .
- .
- .
- .
- .

Insertion loss (IL)	0,25 dB
Reflective attenuation of the PC connector (RL)	min. 45 dB

Connector	E2000/PC
Pigtail length	2m